

A Quilter's Diary: Written in Stitches

Half Day Workshop with Mimi Dietrich

Description

Stitch the story of your life by starting your own Quilter's Diary. Mimi will help you choose blocks that tell your story, help you plan your own Quilter's Diary, and show you how to cut and organize your blocks. Mimi will also demonstrate how she appliques a heart. This is a class for all skill levels.

Materials List

Book

- A Quilter's Diary Written in Stitches (available in class)

Fabric

- For your Quilter's Diary, choose a favorite multi-colored fabric to use as your inspiration fabric. You need two yards to use in some of your quilt blocks and for your quilt borders.
- 1 yard of "background" fabric to use for both appliqué and patchwork squares
- 10 fat quarters that coordinate with your inspiration fabric
- Note: Because this is a half day class, you can just bring 3-5 fat quarters and two 7" background squares.

Class Supplies

- Sticky notes (Post-it Notes)
- Mat, ruler, rotary cutter
- Basic hand sewing supplies (needles, thread, thimble, scissors)
- Pencil

Before Class:

- Wash and iron all fabrics.
- Cut out four background squares 7" x 7".
